

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is irresponsible unless a documentary that is pro-Kerry is aired also. Give us more substantive news about the issues in this election. Not the personalities.

The plan of Sinclair's demonstrates why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Leave Big Media out of local broadcasting!

Thank you,
Jane Maring